COMMUNITY RESOURCE NETWORK

CRN

Filling the gaps in care to improve the well-being of our communities

Connects the teams

Creates a whole-person picture

Expedites help for those at risk

Optimizes well-being

©2019 QS Systems

The Community Resource Network (CRN) platform will fill the gaps people face getting the help they need across a range of services like housing, food and transportation.

It is a person-centric, SDOH-focused Community Information Exchange which is integrated with the Quality Health Network Health Information Exchange. CRN gives Medical, Social Service, and Behavioral Health providers a rich, shared, 'whole person' view to better communicate, collaborate, share and analyze data, and improve client outcomes.